

Broadrake Bunkbarn – Covid-19 Information for Guests

- There is no such thing as zero risk. In spite of the Covid-19 measures in place, social distancing etc. this is not a guarantee that the barn is virus free. Bookings are taken on the basis that guests accept this risk.
- Bookings will be for sole use only with a maximum of two households (plus bubble if applicable).
- Please do not come if you have Covid-19 or any symptoms of Covid-19.
- Should you develop symptoms of Covid-19 whilst staying you should advise us, apply for an antigen test and return home straight away if it is possible to do so.
- If there is no alternative to self-isolating at Broadrake we will need to charge for your stay, including the cost of any bookings cancelled as a result.
- Should you develop Covid-19 symptoms within 7 days of departure please advise us.
- Please provide a full list of persons staying, with phone and email contact details. This information may be passed to NHS track and trace but will not be used for any other purpose.
- Hand sanitiser and hand washing facilities are provided and frequent use is recommended.
- Guests from different households should not share bedrooms.
- We recommend that the different households allocate showers / sinks / toilets and do not share.
- Different households should practice social distancing within the property wherever practical.
- Kitchen and dining facilities should be used sensibly to maintain social distancing between households.
- We will provide cleaning equipment, including virucidal disinfectant, for your use if required. Keep this out of reach of children.
- We will not enter the property during your stay except in exceptional circumstances.
- We live in the adjoining farmhouse but should you need to get in touch with us during your visit email or phone may be the best bet to make it contact free: info@broadrake.co.uk; 015242 41357; 07740 434207
